Director's Notes

When I first heard that Music Theatre International was offering theatres across the world a chance to do a rights-free program, I was ecstatic and knew I wanted to direct it as a fundraiser for Kentwood Players. I was first introduced to this wonderful playhouse in 1974 and in fact, met my husband Jake here.

Last year, my family and I moved to Tennessee and still I was drawn to this project and knew that I would fly in to see it realized. What a joy to present this production to you along with the incredibly talented singers, dancers, creative and technical teams who are part of our Kentwood family.

The composers and lyricists whose music you will enjoy this evening are some of Broadway's finest from Stephen Sondheim to Stephen Schwartz. They are not often recognized when you see them on the street, but you will know them by the beautiful music they have created and the shows that they have collaborated on throughout Broadway's illustrious history.

5800 theatres are mounting productions of All Together Now! albeit presented in slightly different forms and languages around the world. We are part of a collective experience of those who believe as I do that supporting the arts is a critical component to the well being of a healthy society.

It has been my honor and my privilege to have directed seven productions for this theatre including Gypsy, Man of La Mancha, and Avenue Q. Thank you for honoring us by supporting our theatre and we hope you enjoy MTI's All TOGETHER NOW!

Susan Goldman Weisbarth
Director

WHO'S WHO

Matthew Artson

Matt has been performing since he was 5 and studied theatre at UCSD and the Mary London Drama Centre. Aside from film roles and voice over work, his recent theatrical productions have been locally at Theatre Palisades, the Morgan Wixson, and of course Kentwood. He last appeared as Rapunzel's Prince in Into the Woods with several members of the All Together Now! cast. He also sings with the LA Lawyers Philharmonic with choral performances (and solos) at the Walt Disney Concert Hall, Wallis Annenberg Center, etc. After months of staying at home throughout the pandemic and virtual readings, he is thrilled to be back on stage and fulfilling his creative passion (as well as raising money for this worthy cause). This performance is dedicated to Hayden.

Rachel Berman

Rachel Berman is originally from Maui, Hawaii and moved to Los Angeles to attend the University of Southern California, where she studied Communication and Musical Theatre. She is grateful to be performing again with Kentwood where she played Dot in Sunday in the Park With George, Aldonza in Man of La Mancha and Kate Monster in Avenue Q. Big thank you to Susan and Mike for their endless support. Thank you mom, dad, and Hans. Thrilled that theatre is back!! Connect with me on Instagram: @rachelmaui

Megan Cormier

Megan Taylor Cormier is excited to be a part of All Together Now! her third show here at Kentwood. A couple of her favorite credits include Motormoth Maybelle in Hairspray and Gary Coleman in Avenue Q. When she's not performing, she is usually at Disneyland or playinginsanely long board games with her friends. Enjoy the show!!!

Ruth Featherstone

She was nominated for the Kentwood Players Marcom Masques Award 2013 as "Best Supporting Actress" for her role as Sarah's Friend in Ragtime the Musical. Also, Ruth portrayed Mrs. Wilhelmina Johnson in Kentwood Players A Raisin in the Sun. She released three Christian singles, "Your Love Is So Good," "Where You Go, I Will Follow," and "Testify," available on all digital media outlets including Amazon and YouTube. Ruth received an Honorary Doctorate Degree in Sacred Music from Elbon Solution College of Ministry.

Marty Feldman

After 18+ months, Marty Feldman is thrilled to be back performing alongside the talented performers of All Together Now!.
