SOMETHING ABOUT THE CAST . . . .

CALIA SILVERS

As Gretel, makes her debut in a major Kentwood production. She is a member of several local choral groups, and danced ballet with the Horton Dance Group for many years.

SHIRLEY MACKIE

She is see for the first time with Kentwood in the role of Hansel. She has appeared in several workshop productions. In college her major was music, and she now is soloist in her church choir.

MARJORIE MORRIS

She makes her acting debut in the role of the Mother. Her dramatic experience was received in school productions.

FRED CLARK

As the Father, is a newcomer to Kentwood Players. His musical background includes many roles in Gilbert and Sullivan companies, and active participation in his church choir.

ARNOLD NAFTALIN

He has been seen in numerous Kentwood productions. He will be remembered for his roles in such hit shows as CHICKEN EVERY SUNDAY, GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE, and MALE ANIMAL.

JEANNIE JOHNSTON

She is singing the role of the Sandman, is a newcomer to Westchester. She comes to Kentwood with a background of musical experience, having sung with the Tulsa Civic Chorus, and locally with the Roger Wagner Chorale.

DORIS BROWN

She was a music major at U.C.L.A. She has appeared on radio, T.V. and the concert stage. You have seen Doris in Cry Havoc and Wizard of Oz.

JANET MARCOM

She is one of the original members of Kentwood Players and one that is more versatile. Born in Alabama, Janet and her twin sister danced and sang together and did radio work in Louisville, Kentucky. Among numerous other productions, she will best be remembered for her work in Cry Havoc, Dark Tower, Fresh Fields, and Lo and Behold.
