ABOUT THE CAST

MEL OSHINS (the bellboy) was previously seen on our stage in Harvey. He is an enthusiastic new K.P. member whom we are extremely proud to have aboard. Mel has been involved in little theater work a number of years, local audiences having seen him in the Westchester Temple productions of Desert Song and Harvey.

DAVID MIZRAHI (Johnny) makes his fourth appearance for K.P. having been previously seen in Big Knife, Detective Story and The Rainmaker. For a number of years Dave was a member of various quartettes of the barber shop variety, has toured extensively in night clubs in this medium and has had singing roles in Panama Hattie and The Desert Song for the Westchester Temple.

MICHELLE RICHARDS (Eadie) majored in Drama at L.A.C.C. and since has won many accolades in little theater groups. She is well known to Westchester audiences, as well as at the Morgan Theater. She was awarded the K.P. Masque awards for her roles in Detective Story and Streetcar Named Desire. Michelle has also appeared in K.P. productions of Fifth Season, Middle of the Night, Mousetrap and Light Up the Sky. In addition Michelle is a tireless Board member presently in charge of patron and subscription membership.

EDYTHE SILLS (the Mother) was last seen on our stage in Harvey which marked her first West Coast appearance following her recent arrival from New York. Edythe comes to us with a wealth of experience gained through New York little theater and summer stock appearances. She has performed on both radio and T.V. Her many stage roles include Elvira in Blythe Spirit, Anna in The King and I, Adelaide in Guys and Dolls and the lead in Auntie Mame.
