THE TENTH MAN

WESTCHESTER PLAYHOUSE

8301 HINDRY AVENUE
LOS ANGELES 90045

We're glad you are visiting us tonight because so many of you are old friends. To new friends, you may be interested in knowing that KP is in its 16th year of productions ranging from Shakespeare to Olios; drama to fantasy. Of the original seven members back in 1949, two are still very active and the group now has 138 regular members and 100 patrons. Kentwood Players has the distinction of being the only non-profit little theatre in the Los Angeles area who owns their own playhouse—oops . . . we still have a sizeable mortgage. We have played in 9 different locations—from school auditoriums to nightclub restaurants to Barn theatres to now.

We'd like to have you join us! Our regular meetings are held the third Wednesday of each month at 8:30 P.M. here at the theatre. Our meetings are lively, explosive—we do have fun—and there usually is a workshop production that "caps" the evening's refreshments. Yo' all come?

DEREK CADMAN, President
ELAINE MICHELS, Secretary
KARL THOMAS, Vice-President
CHARLOTTE GUNTER, Treasurer

P.S.— Arrangements for theatre parties may be made by calling Elizabeth Thornburgh, AX 3-7395. Half or all of the theatre may be purchased by groups as a pleasant and social "ways and means" project. Blocks of 15 admissions or more may also be obtained at a reduced rate on certain Friday evenings. Students are also welcome and may obtain a reduced rate by calling our reservation number 645-5156.
