He has been a member of Kentwood Players for over 20 years and considers it his second home. Some of his favorite directing credits include Olive & The Bitter Herbs, Sordid Lives, Sabrina Fair, and The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee. Kirk would like to thank the Play Reading Committee and the Board for taking a chance on this show and the wonderful cast for bringing it to life. "Flames. GMJS."

Jeremy Palmer – Producer

He appreciates all the work from the cast and especially from the whole production team and his co-producer to make this show happen.

Bouket Fingerhut – Producer

Bouket is excited to be making her producing debut at Kentwood, but don't worry too much, this isn't her first producing gig. Bouket comes from a huge background in commercial producing as well as stage producing, and was honored when Jeremy approached her to tackle this beast together. When Bouket isn't producing, she is working at other local theater groups as a prop designer, SM, Producer, and even an actor. She also owns her own business with her husband, but rest assured, he's nothing like Franklin.

Catherine Rahm – Musical Director

Thanks to Kirk for letting me handle this fun music by the fabulous Dolly Parton and thanks to the cast who worked so hard to learn some complex rhythms and harmonies. It's always five o'clock somewhere, so kick back and relax and enjoy the show!

Marie Madera Gleerup – Choreographer

Marie has been involved in musical theatre since last century. She would like to thank her cast and staff for their hours of work and dedication to the creation of this production, especially her Dance Captain Lyndsay Palmer and Dance Assistant Mark Bruce-Casares. But she would like to especially thank her husband Rich, for being the "theatre-widower" he's had to be these past few months while Marie prepped and ran choreography rehearsals. Enjoy the show! Psalm 118:24.

Please follow her instagram @jujudafu_ for her future projects.

Jon Sparks – Costume/ Wigs

Jon is a 20+ year member of the Kentwood Players and is honored to work with this great team!
