From the Director:

When I first saw the feature film Clue as a young boy, I knew that this film was something special. It was the first time I had seen a beloved board game, that my family played often, brought to life. I was so excited to see WHO did it, WHERE, and with WHAT. And the film did not disappoint. It instantly became a family classic. And if it was showing on TV, that was what we would be watching. Jump to several decades later; we are in a pandemic, live theater is at "Intermission", and I receive a phone call from Gail Bernardi, Plays Committee Chairperson. She asked if I would be interested in directing Clue at Kentwood Players, and my only answer could be "Yes, Yes, Yes, and YES!". And ever since I uttered those words, I have been having the time of my life with this amazing cast & crew. Helping to bring this iconic show to life has been a wonderful way to return to live theater. I hope you enjoy the show as much as we have had making it.

Ben is a Capricorn sun, Gemini moon, Sagittarius rising & he just moved to California in September of 2021. He grew up in the same town in Indiana as Ted Allen, the guy from Chopped (& the original Queer Eye), and the kid who played Anakin Skywalker in The Phantom Menace. When he was 18, Ben once spent two nights in jail. He would also like to give a quick shout-out to Christina Applegate.

Nathan Gebhard (Colonel Mustard)

Nathan is thrilled to perform for you in his first production with Kentwood Players. His favorite past roles include Charlie Gordon in Flowers for Algernon, Lord Fancourt Baberly in Charlie's Aunt and Richard Hanay in The 39 Steps. He gives thanks to this amazing cast and crew and love to his friends and family, especially his pale and tragic partner-in-crime.

Anica Petrovic (Yvette)

Anica (Ah-nee-tsa) Petrovic couldn't be more thrilled to be back on stage after a "pandemic hiatus!" She is an active member of The Group Rep, and has previously performed with Domino One Productions, After Hours Theatre Company, and Glendale Centre Theatre. She would like to thank her loving husband, family and friends for all of their support, as well as her French professors for unknowingly grooming her for the role of Yvette! Merci!

Aidan Petoyan (Mr. Boddy/Motorist/Chief of Police)

Aidan Petoyan is a sixteen-year-old actor born and raised in Los Angeles. Not only is this his first time at Kentwood, it's his first production ever and he couldn't be more excited. Aidan studies acting under Kentwood veteran Mark Mayes at Fusion Academy Miracle Mile, and wants nothing more than to make a career of it someday. He's read Algernon in The Importance of Being Earnest, Stanley in A Streetcar Named Desire, George in Who's Afraid of Virginia Wolfe, Charles in Blithe Spirit, Father Flynn in Doubt, Henry Higgins in Pygmalion, and Richard III in Richard III. Aidan enjoys watching Maverick, the western TV show starring James Garner, and listening to Ry Cooder in his spare time. He greatly appreciates you all coming to watch the show and hopes you enjoy it.

Meet the Cast

Catherine Rahm (Mrs. Peacock)

Catherine is enjoying working on this crazy and fun production. Mrs. Peacock is the 20th role she has played on the Kentwood stage, and she has served as director, music director and on the Board here as well. Although she has appeared in shows throughout Los Angeles and the surrounding areas, she always looks on Kentwood as her theatre home. Three cheers for the return of the glorious undertaking that is live theatre!

Kaitlyn Schott (Cook/Cop/Singing Telegram Girl)

This is Kaitlyn's first show with The Kentwood Players. Elsewhere she's been in The Curate Shakespeare's As You Like It and See How They Run. In her free time, she writes with the help of her cats Sage and Tibby.

Sean Spencer (Professor Plum)

Since the "before times" of 2020, Sean Spencer has gone from roaming the stages of LA to having taken part in a plethora of online performances with a group of utterly fantastic individuals that have lead to further pursuits in his initial aim of becoming a voice over artist. The illustrious Professor Plum will be his first return to live stage as well as with the Kentwood Players, and so far it's shaping up to be a killer time!

Amanda Webb (Mrs. White)

Amanda Webb is overjoyed to be back onstage for her first Kentwood Players show, and is grateful to do so with this fantastic cast & production team. A New York native & NYU grad, past shows include Little Shop of Horrors (Audrey), Follies (Phyllis), Hairspray (Velma), and The 39 Steps. She also enjoys reading, board games, whiskey, and hiking. Much love to her incredible family & friends and her Mustard-colored partner-in-crime.

Meet the Crew

Daniel Kruger (Director)

Daniel is beyond excited to be directing Clue for his directorial debut with Kentwood Players. Daniel has been very fortunate to work in both stage and screen as an actor, costume designer, props master, set decorator, writer, producer, and director. In 2020 he launched his production company 90West Productions and premiered his short film Hapless Hour in March 2021. He hopes you will sit back, relax, and enjoy guessing WHO did it, WHERE, and with WHAT!

Favorite past stage credits: Dial "M" for Murder (Margot)* with Kentwood Players; Beauty and the Beast (Belle u/s) with Berkeley Playhouse; Steel Magnolias (Truvy) with Theatre Palisades. @thecourtneyshaffer

Alison Boole (Co-Producer)

Alison is very excited to be a part of this production with this great cast and crew! She has been a member of Kentwood for over 25 years and has participated in many productions as stage manager, director, choreographer, light booth operator and performer. Alison recently appeared at Kentwood as Marmee in Little Women, LaTrelle in Sordid Lives and DeeDee in Scream Queens. Alison is very happy to be working with Daniel, Michele, Brian, and everyone involved in this production.

Michele Selin (Co-Producer)

This is Michele's first time behind the scenes at Kentwood, having previously acted in Blithe Spirit (Mrs. Bradman), Sunday in the Park with George (Mrs.), Our Town (Mrs. Webb), Daddy's Dyin', Who's Got the Will (Lurline), The Crucible (Ann Putnam), The Imaginary Invalid (Toinette), as well as the zoom play Poetry, Prose & Pirates (Shelly). Many thanks to Daniel Kruger and our awesome cast and crew who killed it! Enjoy!

Brian Wells (Co-Producer)

Brian Wells joins his first Kentwood production as an active participant after several years of looming in the shadows... watching... waiting... <ahem>. He brings years of experience as a dramatic, comedic, and musical actor to the project. He also has an extensive background as both a director and producer of corporate video media. Mostly, though, he's just happy to be here.

Shawn "Lefty" Plunkett (Set Designer, Master Builder)

Hailing from parts unknown, little is known about Lefty. Rumors abound of his left-handedness but that has yet to be confirmed. He will be your master builder.

Meet the Crew

Jon Sparks (Costume Designer)

Jon is a 20+ year member of the Kentwood Players and is honored to work with this great team! For the past two decades, he has performed, directed, wiggged, costumed and produced shows all over Los Angeles and Orange County. Jon is a proud member of IATSE Local 706, the Make-Up Artist and Hair Stylist Guild. Jon is an accomplished wig master, having worked at Disneyland as well as many local theaters.

Susan Stangl (Sound Designer)

Susan Stangl has been composing and doing sound design for over 20 years, including for many productions here at Kentwood Players. She also acts and directs, most recently in KP's production of Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike.

Michael Thorpe (Lighting Designer)

The story you are about to see is true. Only the names have been changed to protect the guilty. My name's Thorpe; I carry a wrench.

[Cue theme song.]

It was a dark and stormy night, and my partner Bill Gannon and I were called out to a house to investigate an MAH: Multiple-Actor Homicide. We found quite a few Boddies but hadn't yet found a Clue...

In Memoriam

Jeannie Spain with longtime member Phil Massi

Long-standing member Jeannie Spain passed away on January 19th. She and her husband Del were very active members. Jeannie performed and worked behind the scenes on many shows. In fact, if you auditioned at Kentwood between 1997 - 2017, there is a good chance Jeannie greeted you at the sign-in table. She worked as an audition assistant for over 75 shows in that 20 year period. She will be remembered fondly by many for her fun-loving spirit and wonderful husky voice. Jeannie was truly one of a kind.
